

Business Plus August 2006

Manley award invites entries

The winner of the 2006 David Manley Award will receive services to the value of €80,000 from Deloitte, Alexander Dunlop, Image Now, Professional Development, Newmarket and gbc Public Relations, as well as €10,000 cash. Entrepreneurs interested in entering the awards should be current participants in an enterprise support programme run by an SME enterprise support agency in Dublin or associated with Business2Arts or Social Entrepreneurs Ireland. The award will be judged primarily on innovation, impact, sustainability and execution, and the closing date for entries is September 8. Details Roy Finnegan (01) 295 6886.

David Pierse (left), Friends of David Manley Committee, and Dermot Egan, chairman of the judging panel