

Business In Brief

Budding Entrepreneurs

AWARD

ENTREPRENEURS from across Limerick are invited to apply for a major award, which will give their fledgling businesses the best possible start.

The winner of the 2008 David Manley Emerging Entrepreneur Awards will not only pick up a cash prize of €10,000, but they will also receive €80,000 worth of consultancy.

For more information, and to enter the awards, visit www.davidmanleyawards.ie.

Small firms hit hard

SFA APPEAL

SMALL business across Limerick are suffering as a consequence of the rise in product prices.

This is according to the director of the Small Firms Association, who support several small firms across Limerick.

Patricia Callan also called on the government to take 'firm action' to prevent job losses. 'The fact is that unless firm action is taken by the Government now, there are going to be job losses,' she said.
